Prayer by the Senate Chaplain:

"For those who look sunwards
the shadows
fall behind"

Lord, by your permission we are here;
We are in your presence
And there is joy! What a day!
We feel it.
We are cleansed and strengthened by it.
Praise the Lord!
By your own glorious power
Help these here assembled to never give in
But to bear all things in joy, with patience, perserverance, and hope
Knowing that whatever they do for one of the least of their brothers they do for you, Lord.
Let these accomplish more good through this session of the Senate than has ever been accomplished before
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed with amendments—

By Senator Wilson—

SB 204—A bill to be entitled An act relating to part II of the insurance code; amending section 627.01001(5), Florida Statutes, to provide for attorney fees to an insured or beneficiary of a credit life or credit disability insurance contract; providing an effective date.

Amendment 1

On page 1, lines 19 and 20, strike all of Section 2 and insert new Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, as follows:

Section 2. Section 627.031, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

(Substantial rewording of section. See section 627.031, F.S., for present text.)

627.031 Purpose of part I; interpretation.—

(1) The purposes of part I of this chapter are:

(a) To promote the public welfare by regulating insurance as herein provided so that rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, and rate increases shall not be excessive or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) To promote price competition among insurers, to provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions, and to improve the availability and reliability of insurance.

(c) To authorize the existence and operation of qualified rating organizations and advisory organizations and require that specified rating services of such organizations be generally available to all authorized insurers.

Section 3. Section 627.041, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding subsections (8) and (9) to read:

627.041 Definitions.—As used in part I of this chapter:

(8) "Competition" means price competition.

(9) "Noncompetitive practices" includes, but is not limited to, entering into agreements in the setting or adhering to rates, or acting in concert in the setting or adhering to rates, charging unreasonably high rates for the type of insurance provided, charging of rates which are destructive of competition, unreasonably subjective or restrictive underwriting practices, refusing to renew, surcharging, canceling policies, or adopting a plan of reclassification of risk, without objective justification.

Section 4. Subsections (1) and (2) of section 627.062, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

627.062 [Rate standards] Standards for rates and rate increases.—

(1) [The] Rates [for all classes of insurance to which the provisions of this part are applicable] shall not be excessive, inadequate, [or] unfairly discriminatory, destructive of competition, or detrimental to the solvency of insurers. In this section "rates" means rates or rate increases when applicable.

(2) As to all such classes of insurance, other than workmen's compensation and employer's liability insurances:

(a) No rate shall be held to be excessive unless:

1. Such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided, and

2. A reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which the rate is applicable[.]; provided, however, that it will be presumed that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist as to any rate, rate classification, or as to any territory when the department of insurance finds that noncompetitive practices prevail.

(b) No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless:

1. The rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided, and

2. The continued use of the rate endangers the solvency of the insurer using the same, or unless

3. The rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and the use of the rate by the insurer using the same has, or if continued will have, the effect of destroying competition or of creating a monopoly.

(c) No rate increase shall be held to be excessive so long as such increase bears a direct relationship to actual and prospective loss and expense experience. An insurer shall have the duty to show by a preponderance of the evidence the reasonableness of all its loss reserves, prospective loss and expense factors, and any other factors relied upon by it in arriving at a rate increase. In addition, the department of insurance shall take into account investment income on unearned premium reserves and loss reserves. In order to support a finding that a rate increase is excessive it shall be necessary to find that the resulting rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided.

Section 5. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 627.072, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.072 Making and use of rates.—

(1)(a) As to all rates which are subject to part I of this chapter due consideration shall be given to:

[1. The extent applicable;]

[2]1. Past and prospective loss experience within and outside this state;

[3]2. The conflagration and catastrophe hazards;

[4]3. A reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies;

[5]4. Dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers;

[6]5. Investment income on unearned premium reserves and loss reserves;

[7]6. Past and prospective expenses both country-wide and those specifically applicable to this state; and

[8]7. All other relevant factors, including judgment factors, within and outside this state. Provided, however, that any insurer using such factors shall have the burden of proving their relevance, necessity and applicability.

Section 6. Chapter 627, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding section 627.073 to read:

627.073 Unfairly discriminatory rate classifications, rate plans and territories prohibited.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, prior filing of rates with the department of insurance or its prior approval thereof shall not be required. Prior approval of rate classifications, rate plans and rate territories is not required except upon a finding by the department of insurance that such rate classifications, rate plans, or rate territories are unfairly discriminatory.

Section 7. Section 627.321, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding subsection (5) thereto:

627.321 Examinations and rate hearings.—

(5) The department of insurance at any time, whether after examination or not, may hold a public hearing on any rate in effect or rate increase announced to determine whether or not the same complies with the provisions of part I of this chapter. All hearings held by the department of insurance under this subsection shall be held pursuant to and in compliance with sections 624.0123 through 624.0127, Florida Statutes.

Section 8. Chapter 627, Florida Statutes, is amended by adding section 627.342 to read:

627.342 Public notification.—

(1) Every insurer and rating organization shall, within thirty (30) days from the effective date of any changes in rate classifications, rate plans, and rate territories, furnish the department of insurance all changes in the rating rules and schedules of rates such insurer or rating organization is then using in this state, and shall furnish the department of insurance within said thirty (30) days all statistical, rating, and other information in support of such changes.

(2) The department of insurance shall require each insurer which has made a rate change to furnish it the following information used in determining the rate change:

- (a) The experience or judgment of the insurer which made the rate change or the experience or judgment of any rating organization;
- (b) The insurer's interpretation of any statistical data which it relies on;
- (c) The experience of other insurers or rating organizations;
- (d) Any other factors which the insurer deems relevant.

Upon receipt of such information by the department of insurance, it shall be made available for public inspection in its office at Tallahassee during the usual business hours.

Section 9. Subsection (2) of section 627.371, Florida Statutes, is amended, new subsections (5) and (6) are added to said section and present subsection (5) is renumbered subsection (7) and amended to read:

627.371 Hearings.—

(2) If after examination of an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, or upon the basis of other information, or upon its own motion, or upon sufficient complaint as provided in subsection (1), the [commissioner] department of insurance has [good] cause to believe that such insurer, organization, group or association, or any rate, rating plan, or rating system made or used by any such insurer or rating organization, does not comply with the requirements and standards of this part applicable to it, or that any rate increase is excessive, or if it has cause to believe that any insurer, organization, group or association is engaged in noncompetitive practices, or that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist as to any class or territory of insurance, [he] it shall, unless [he] it has [good] cause to believe such noncompliance is willful, give notice in writing to such insurer, organization, group, or association stating therein in what manner and to what extent noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than ten (10) days thereafter, in which the noncompliance may be corrected, including any premium adjustment.

(5) In addition to the remedies in subsection (4) the department of insurance shall have the specific power to order the suspension of the noncomplying rate or rates and reimpose the last previous rate in effect.

(6) Any enforcement order under subsection (5) shall be for a period of time not in excess of six (6) months. Such order may be renewed after a further public hearing, unless the department finds that the conditions giving rise to the order have been corrected and that a reasonable degree of competition exists.

5 Except as otherwise provided in this part, all proceedings in connection with the denial, suspension or revocation of a license or certificate of authority shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 624, Florida Statutes, [of this code,] and the [commissioner] department of insurance shall have all the powers granted to [him] it therein.

Section 10. This act shall take effect September 1, 1970.

Amendment 2

Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives

The Select Committee appointed by the President on May 27, consisting of Senators Friday, Horne and Henderson, to advise the Chair relative to a point of order raised by Senator Barron submitted the following report:

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

Mr. President:

It appears that the precedent is well established that an amendment by one house to a bill originating in another house is not subject to a point of order as to its germanity, when the bill with the amendment is before the body in which the original measure was proposed.

Cannon's Precedents of the House of Representatives VIII, Section 3425 states:

"A Senate amendment is not subject to the point of order in the House that it is not germane to the House bill."

(Also see: Jefferson's Manual, Section 794)

Elmer O. Friday, Jr.
Mallory E. Horne
Warren S. Henderson

The President ruled that the point of order was not well taken.

The question recurred on the motion by Senator Wilson made on May 27, that the Senate refuse to concur in House amendments 1 and 2 and requests the House to recede therefrom. Pending consideration thereof, Senator Shevin moved as a substitute motion that the Senate concur in the House amendments and the substitute motion failed. The motion by Senator Wilson was adopted and the action of the Senate was certified to the House.

The Senate resumed—
